Theme

Teaching - Learning - TLM - Theory - Practicals Evaluation are key components of any academic / education programme. The merit of any educational system depends on the standards of attainment shown by its products in terms of competence and excellence. This shows that the quality of education is directly linked with the quality of evaluation i.e., Question Paper Setting.

Evaluation and Question Paper Setting

Evaluation is a process of collecting evidences about student’s achievement in terms of educational objectives. Judgments are formed and decisions are taken on the basis of evidences. Evaluation therefore has the following four components.

• Information gathering
• Interpretations of information
• Judgment forming, and
• Decision making

Examinations, Tests, Assessment are the different sources in the process of evaluation. In these Question Paper Setting plays a key role.

Evaluation is an integral part of any teaching and learning programme. Both teaching and evaluation go hand in hand with each other. Finally, the quality of Evaluation depends upon the Quality of Question Paper.

Sub Themes

➢ Evaluation in Education
➢ Instructional objectives in Testing
